15. Statutory Liability Extension

Under Insuring Clauses 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3, and notwithstanding the reference in General Exclusion 5 \(c\) to fines and penalties, We agree that the definition of Loss includes Statutory Liability.

With respect to the cover under this Extension, We agree that for any Claim brought in the jurisdiction and under the laws of Australia or New Zealand against the Club and/or an Insured Officer in connection with:

However, We are not liable to make payment under the Policy in connection with any Statutory Liability directly or indirectly based on, arising out of or attributable to any reckless or grossly negligent conduct by the Club and/or an Insured Officer or any known or intentional breach or violation of law by the Club and/or an Insured Officer. This exclusion shall only apply if it is established through a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Club and/or an Insured Officer or any admission by the Club and/or an Insured Officer that such conduct did in fact occur.

We are not liable to make any payment under the Policy in connection with any alleged violation of any law in relation to vehicle, air or marine traffic.

Additional Conditions for Part 3

1. Allocation

- (a) Where a Claim involves matters and/or parties which give rise to Loss covered by this Policy and matters and/or parties which do not, then We will use Our best efforts to agree upon a fair and proper allocation of the proportion covered under this Policy, having regard to the relative legal and financial exposures attributable to covered and uncovered matters and/or parties. Only Loss incurred by the Insured (if applicable), and in the case of Defence Costs those which are directly attributable to (where applicable) the Insured's defence of such Claim, is covered, subject always to the terms and conditions of this Policy.
- (b) If an allocation cannot be agreed then it shall be referred to mediation by a Senior Counsel, mutually agreed upon by each party or, in default of agreement, the Senior Counsel to be nominated by the relevant Law Institute. The parties will have the opportunity to put to the Senior Counsel written and oral submissions based on the relative legal and financial exposures attributable to covered and uncovered matters. The outcome of such mediation shall be binding on the parties to the mediation. Pending the outcome of the mediation, We may, at Our sole discretion, meet the Loss on an interim basis. Subject to the outcome of the mediation, if that outcome is favourable to Us, the Insured will refund to Us any amount which We have paid that exceeds the amount We and the Insured agreed at mediation that is payable (if any) under this Policy. The costs of any mediation under this clause shall be borne equally by Us and the Insured.

- (c) If the Deductible applicable to Insuring Clause 3.1 under this Part 3 applies to part of a Loss and the Deductible applicable to any other Insuring Clause applies to Part 3, then We and the Insured must use our best efforts to reach an agreement of a fair allocation of such Loss between Insuring Clause 3.1 and other Insuring Clauses under this Part 3. If no agreement can be reached, the dispute will be referred to Senior Counsel using the mechanism in (b) above for resolution of the issue.

2. Alteration to Risk

If during the Period of Insurance a Transaction takes place, then the cover provided under Part 3 applies only to Wrongful Acts, Employment Practice Breaches, Trustee Breaches and Dishonest Acts committed prior to the effective date of the Transaction.

The Insured shall give Us written notice of the Transaction as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days after the effective date of the Transaction.

If, during the Period of Insurance, the Insured decides to make an offering of its Securities in any jurisdiction, whether its Securities are already traded or not, by any means, public or private, then as soon as the information is publicly available, the Insured shall provide Us with any prospectus or offering statement for Our evaluation and assessment of the Insured's increased exposure, and We shall be entitled to amend the terms and conditions of this Policy and/or charge a reasonable additional premium reflecting the increase in exposure.

At the Insured's request, prior to the public announcement of such Securities offering, We shall evaluate and assess the increased exposure and advise of all necessary amendments to the terms and conditions of this Policy and additional premium. In this event and at the request of the Insured, We will enter into a confidentiality agreement with the Insured relating to any information provided regarding the proposed Securities offering.

3. Basis of Valuation

With respect to any Direct Financial Loss which is covered under this Policy, We are not liable for more than:

- (a) The actual market value of Securities, Money or precious metals at the close of business on the day the Direct Financial Loss was first Discovered (determined by the value published in the Australian Financial Review), or the actual cost of replacing the Securities, Money or precious metals, whichever is less.
- (b) The actual cash value of other tangible property (not referred to in (a) above) at the close of business on the day the Direct Financial Loss was first Discovered, or the actual cost of replacing the property with property of like quality or value, whichever is less.
- (c) The cost of blank books, blank pages or other materials plus the cost of labour and computer time for the actual transcription or copying of data furnished by the Insured in order to reproduce books of account and other records.
- (d) The cost of labour for the actual transcription or copying of electronic data furnished by the Insured in order to reproduce such electronic data.

4. Confidentiality

The Insured must not disclose, either personally or through any person or entity acting on the Insured's behalf or at the Insured's direction, to any third party:

- (a) The existence of this Policy; or
- (b) The nature of the indemnity provided; or
- (c) The Indemnity Limit; or
- (d) The amount of premium paid.

However, the Insured may disclose the above matters to the extent that:

- (i) The Insured is required to do so by law; or
- (ii) We consent to the disclosure in writing.

5. Non-Imputation

Except as provided for under Insuring Clause 3.4, which includes reference to the definition of Discovered under this Part 3, no state of mind or knowledge possessed by any one Office Bearer will be imputed to any other Office Bearer for the purpose of determining whether any provision in this Policy applies. However, any state of mind or knowledge possessed by any past or present chairman of the board or management committee, chief executive officer, director, chief operating officer or chief financial officer of the Insured will be imputed to the Insured.

6. Notification of Direct Financial Loss

The Insured shall, as a condition precedent to Our obligations under this Policy, give written notice to Us of any Direct Financial Loss as soon as practicable within the Period of Insurance, or within the Discovery Period if applicable, but in any event not later than 60 days after any Direct Financial Loss is first Discovered.

The Insured must, at its own cost, also:

- (a) Provide Us with affirmative proof of the Direct Financial Loss with full particulars within 6 months of the Direct Financial Loss being first Discovered; and
- (b) Provide Us with all requested information and documents and co-operate with Us in all matters pertaining to the Direct Financial Loss.

7. Settlement of Direct Financial Loss

If the Insured notifies Us of a Direct Financial Loss and We accept the notification under this Policy, subject to the Insured's compliance with Additional Condition 2 under this Part 3, an appropriate fraud investigator will be nominated by the Insured, and approved in writing by Us, to establish proof of any element or part of the Direct Financial Loss not yet accepted by Us. The fraud investigator shall:

- (a) Investigate the facts behind such unproven Direct Financial Loss; and

- (b) Determine the quantum of such unproven Direct Financial Loss; and
- (c) Advise when and how the Insured's controls were or may have been breached; and
- (d) Provide recommendations which may prevent future similar Direct Financial Loss; and
- (e) Issue their findings in a report format approved by Us; and
- (f) Provide a copy of the report to the Insured and to Us.

The report of the fraud investigator will not be binding and definitive as to the facts and quantum of such unproven Direct Financial Loss.

We will pay for the reasonable and necessary fees, costs and expenses of the fraud investigator provided the unproven Direct Financial Loss is ultimately determined to be covered under this Policy. If that part of the Direct Financial Loss is determined not to be covered under this Policy, the Insured will pay the said fees, costs and expenses of the fraud investigator.

Any amount of the investigator's fees paid by Us under this Claims Condition will be paid in addition to the Indemnity Limit and will not be the subject of any Deductible.
